Section 11. Conduct of Election. The Election shall be held in accordance with the Code, the Texas Government Code, and the Voting Rights Act.

Section 12. Information Required by Section 3.009 of the Election Code.

(a) City's Outstanding Debt. As of the date of this Ordinance, the City's aggregate principal amount of outstanding tax-supported debt was $112,288,186 and the aggregate amount of outstanding interest on such tax-supported debt was $38,072,303. Pursuant to Section 3.009(a) of the Code, such numbers do not include public securities that were designated by the City as self-supporting by the City in Resolution No. 2994 or $65,500,000 in the principal amount of its Tax and Revenue Certificates of Obligation, Series 2025, which are hereby designated as self-supporting from the revenues of the City's water and sewer system. As of the date of this Ordinance, the City's total ad valorem tax rate is $0.70042 per $100 of assessed valuation, which is made up of a maintenance and operations tax rate component of $0.43689 per $100 of assessed valuation and a debt service tax rate component of $0.26353 per $100 of assessed valuation of taxable property in the City.

(b) Issuance of New Debt. The City intends to issue the bonds authorized by the Propositions over a period of years in a manner and in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the City Council based upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the then current needs of the City, demographic changes, prevailing market conditions, assessed valuations of property in the City, the use of variable rate debt and management of the City's short-term and long-term interest rate exposure. Market conditions, demographics and assessed valuations of property vary based upon a number of factors beyond the City's control. Therefore, the City cannot and does not guarantee a particular interest rate or tax rate associated with the bonds authorized by the Propositions. As such, the information contained in this paragraph is provided solely for illustrative purposes and does not establish any limitations or restrictions or create a contract with the voters. The City estimates that, based on the City's current taxable assessed valuation, current market conditions as of the date of this Ordinance, and estimated future growth in the City's taxable assessed valuation, if the Propositions were approved and all of the bonds authorized by the Propositions were issued in accordance with the City's current projected plan of finance, the maximum interest rate on the bonds is not expected to exceed 5.00%.

(c) Additional Information Required by Section 3.009 of the Code. The additional information required by Section 3.009 of the Code is located in Sections 2 and 3 of this Ordinance.

Section 1251.052(b), Texas Government Code. The Mayor of the City, the City Manager, or their designee, acting on behalf of the City Council, is further authorized and directed to post or provide for the posting of the Voter Information Documents in the manner provided under Section 10 of this Ordinance and Section 1251.052(b), Texas Government Code.

Section 15. Severability. If any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance, or the application of same to any person or set of circumstances is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, void, invalid, or unenforceable, neither the remaining portions of this Ordinance nor their application to other persons or sets of circumstances shall be affected thereby, it being the intent of the City Council in adopting this Ordinance that no portion hereof or provision or regulation contained herein shall become inoperative or fail by reason of any unconstitutionality, voidness, invalidity or unenforceability of any other portion hereof, and all provisions of this Ordinance are declared to be severable for that purpose.
